Reasons and description of the product discontinuation

The supplier of the imaging sensors build into the affected cameras, ON Semiconductor, has decided to discontinue the imaging sensor MT9T001C12STC (colour).

IDS therefore has to announce the near-term discontinuation of the affected cameras below. Until the end of sales date the amount of required cameras can be ordered.

Recommended action for customers

Due to the definite supply situation, IDS recommends to order all required volumes prior to the end of sales date below. Orders after the end of sales date cannot be accepted. In your orders please assure the expected delivery date is prior to the last shipment date below.

IDS will be able to recommend potential alternatives for the discontinued cameras, for any questions regarding last time orders or successor models, please contact our sales team.
